

Hou Yi is a hero from Chinese mythology known for his feat of bringing down nine of the ten suns that were scorching the Earth, thus saving humanity. As a reward, he received the elixir of immortality, but his beloved, Chang'e, drank it and ascended to the moon, separating from him forever. The legend depicts themes such as sacrifice, eternal love, and the connection between heaven and earth. The legend of Hou Yi is one of the best-known stories in Chinese mythology, especially for its connection to the Mid-Autumn Festival, one of the country's most important celebrations. During this festival, families gather to admire the full moon, eat mooncakes, and remember the story of Hou Yi, revered as a cultural hero representing courage, strength, and sacrifice, and of Chang'e, an icon of beauty and mystery, both symbolizing union and eternal love.
