Officially opened in 1965 by the founding first president of Kenya, Mzee Jomo Kenyatta, Muthu Keekorok Lodge sits in the direct path of the spectacular annual animal migration from July to October. Over the years, it has hosted distinguished dignitaries like H. E. Mzee Jomo Kenyatta, Prince Charles, Dr. Henry Kissinger, and former Secretary of State George P. Shultz.

Nestled amid 700 square miles of lush, sun-drenched plains, Muthu Keekorok Lodge is at the heart of the Masai Mara, offering guests a chance to observe diverse wildlife. The lodge's commitment to conservation makes it an eco-friendly property, supporting the mission of the Global Alliance of National Parks. Guests can enjoy Maasai Mara National Reserve through exciting road safaris or enchanting Hot Air Balloon rides, with easy access from the nearby Keekorok Airstrip. The lodge offers a range of accommodation options, from Standard Rooms to luxurious Suites, each providing enchanting park views for an unforgettable Kenya safari experience.

RESTAURANT & BARS

The Chui Restaurant

Chui restaurant offers a vibrant and inviting atmosphere. Our menu showcases the best of all cuisine for every palate, including Indian, European, Chinese and Kenyan delicacies that incorporate local ingredients and flavours.

Hippo Bar and Bridge

The Hippo Bar is located right next to the river. Guests can sit, relax and enjoy a drink while watching hippos in their natural habitat. Once in a while, you will get to see a crocodile as well. The bridge that crosses the river towards the bar is the perfect place for a romantic stroll, or a peaceful walk to enjoy the views.

Pool Bar

Surrounded by bougainvillea plant, the bar is next to the hotel's outdoor pool. Guests can order their favourite drinks and snacks while they take a dip in the pool amidst the nature.
